

State CIOs Only: What do you see as the state CIO's role in privacy?

- 10% A. Advisor on privacy policy
- 0% B. Implementer of privacy policies
- 25% C. Leadership role with respect to privacy awareness at the agency-level
- 60% D. All of the above
- 5% E. Privacy is not an issue that is on my plate

Since state government has such a pervasive amount of personal information in electronic form, who should determine what information is private and needs additional protection?

48% A. Policy makers (Governor, Legislature, etc.)

26% B. Agency Management that holds the data

4% C. CIO

20% D. Citizens

2% E. I give up!!

The issue related to privacy that really keeps me awake at night is?

- 6% A. Disposal of IT assets with personal info on them
- 32% B. Wireless devices or personal devices with data stored on them
- 35% C. Systems being implemented without privacy considerations "baked-in"
- 24% D. Confidential/private information being shared through email and internet
- 3% E. I sleep fine at night, thanks!

As Governments are being pushed for greater transparency and openness we have seen a greater challenge to balancing transparency with privacy. Which privacy driver below is your biggest challenge?

- 42% A. The complexity of State Government with the need to cross-reference info across agencies
- 4% B. The tech-savvy nature of employees/contractors who know how to use and misuse IT resources
- 13% C. The mobile workforce with state issued and/or personal technological devices
- 33% D. The need for states to share cross-boundary info that includes health info and other personal data
- 9% E. The gradual erosion of citizen trust and demand for more online services