

35. What are the top information security challenges in 2008? (Select top 3)

- 43% a. The escalating number of cyber attacks
- 30% b. General education and awareness
- 69% c. Data protection – what, where and who has access
- 29% d. Mobile devices
- 16% e. Legacy applications and systems
- 24% f. Web-based applications
- 14% g. Regulatory compliance

36. The biggest barrier to effective information security is:

- 18% a. Lack of Budget
- 8% b. Lack of Staff
- 39% c. Policy Development or enforcement
- 5% d. Executive Support
- 2% e. Legislation
- 27% f. Culture

37. As far as protecting sensitive citizen information, my organization:

23% a. Has everything under control

59% b. Does a pretty good job, but could use some more help

12% c. Needs to reorganize quick

6% d. Doesn't have a clue!

38. Information security can best be administered by outside firms that specialize in this service and have the resources and expertise to keep up with the multitude of changing threats.

45% a. True

55% b. False

39. What are the prime areas that need to be addressed when organizing for enterprise IT security? (Select 3 only)

- 16% a. Visibility and support (Security Evangelist to the Legislature, Governor, Cabinet, Business units, CIO)
- 22% b. Security Policies
- 12% c. Centralized vs. decentralized security operations/monitoring
- 34% d. Data governance (collected, propagated and removed)
- 4% e. Procurement
- 3% f. Employee professional development (career paths)
- 8% g. Business process