

1. Is this your first NASCIO Conference? (All)

34% A. Yes

66% B. No

2. Tell us, in order, the top 3 ways a NASCIO Conference adds value. NASCIO offers a chance to: (All)

- 5% A. Get out of town
- 29% B. Hear/learn from good speakers
- 21% C. Get info/opinions about market offerings
- 18% D. Catch up with old (new) friends
- 22% E. Get feedback on what we're doing (or may soon do)
- 6% F. I'll never tell...

3. What is the single most important authority for a state CIO? (All)

- 42% A. Authority commensurate with responsibility and resources
- 10% B. Know/cultivate political power
- 1% C. Procurement oversight
- 13% D. Budget/planning oversight
- 24% E. Enterprise project portfolio oversight
- 8% F. Enterprise security oversight

4. For the world you see, and for the transitions that are most important, what do you rank as the most important fundamental that Steve Uzzell identified: (All)

30% A. Curiosity

38% B. Passion

20% C. Commitment

12% D. Accountability

5. How would you characterize your IT budget this fiscal year? (State Government Only)

24% A. Increased by 10% or more

40% B. Flat

16% C. Reduced by up to 10% or less

20% D. What budget?

6. Which two (2) of the following most deserve state CIOs attention? (State Government Only)

12% A. Staying within budget without things falling apart

34% B. Consolidating to enterprise-wide shared services

14% C. Transitioning to externally-supplied cloud-based services

16% D. Replacing staff that are leaving or already gone

18% E. Gaining support for mobile, big data or other strategic applications

6% F. Something else I can't mention because it is a state CIO secret

7. In the next five years, which three (3) of the following have the best chance to occur? (All)

- 28% A. State CIOs will lose their jobs because of a security and/or privacy problem
- 42% B. Security incidents and/or publicity about incidents will grow by 10% per year or more
- 3% C. Security incidents and/or publicity about incidents will fall by 10% per year or more
- 13% D. The public will show a new tolerance for security-related surveillance and inconvenience
- 13% E. One or more technologies will “solve” the digital identity problem in 25 or more states

8. In the next 1-2 years do you plan to move any of your core systems to the cloud (State Government Only)

11% A. No, can't get past security concerns

2% B. No, can't get past the human resources implications

11% C. No, can't get past procurement terms and conditions

37% D. Yes, assuming the budget and ROI get approved

39% E. Yes, no turning back now

9. How do you most often fill your skill gaps in your IT workforce? (State Government Only)

5% A. Hire using competitive salaries/benefits

60% B. Contract out

16% C. Train from within

0% D. Use volunteers

19% E. We simply can't fill the gaps