

1. Is this your first NASCIO Conference? (All)

31% A. Yes

69% B. No

2. Is this your first visit to Music City? (All)

40% A. Yes

60% B. No

3. Are you a Country Music Fan? (All)

48% A. Yes

19% B. No

33% C. Only when I am in Nashville

What are the key barriers your jurisdiction currently has or has experienced in adopting a cloud environment? Government Only

- 2% A. Regulatory compliance
- 14% B. Lack of a contract vehicle to secure cloud services
- 37% C. Data security
- 15% D. Integration with existing systems
- 11% E. Impact of cloud migration on existing staff levels/responsibilities
- 9% F. Performance concerns
- 1% G. Availability of data to measure return on investment (RO)
- 7% H. Confidence that prospective partners can complete the contracted work
- 4% I. Reinforced steel

When it comes to technology adoption and digital strategy implementation, we look to the private sector for best practices and strategies and take action to implement them. Government Only

- 35% A. Definitely! The private sector is ahead of government and we can learn from their successes and failures.
- 51% B. Sometimes we are able to do that.
- 4% C. We can't afford what private sector uses so why bother.
- 7% D. Private sector is not a good example for us to follow.
- 3% E. Government is ahead of private sector so we don't need to.

1. My department/agency uses open data to provide quality services for external customers (i.e. citizens, business, etc.). Government Only

13% A. We are totally there!

18% B. We are on the road and there is not a speed limit...

38% C. We are on the road but the speed limit is 5 MPH

25% D. We found the road but haven't started the journey...

5% E. We can't find the road, even with GPS...

2. My department/agency strives to use open source platforms rather than closed source, proprietary technologies. Government Only

3% A. What is a platform?

27% B. Open/closed, what's the difference?

51% C. Definitely Open Source – it is the Future of Digital Government!

19% D. My agency lives for closed source legacy systems – let's keep spending!

1. Is “Open Data” just another buzz-term that is being oversold and over-hyped? (All)

29% A. Yes

55% B. No

16% C. Not sure

2. Is “Open Data” a means to an end or an on-going quest? (All)

100% A. Yes

0% B. No

0% C. Not sure

3. Open Data best serves to: (All – choose as many as apply)

13% A. Contribute to new mobile apps

8% B. News media consumption

6% C. Balanced scorecards

16% D. Improved data-driven decisions

13% E. Ultimately improve government effectiveness

17% F. Leads to improved citizen engagement

27% G. All of the above

4. Which one of the following is the best possible outcome as a result of Open Data? (All – choose only one)

3% A. Contribute to new mobile apps

1% B. News media consumption

1% C. Balanced scorecards

28% D. Improved data-driven decisions

26% E. Ultimately improve government effectiveness

26% F. Leads to improved citizen engagement

15% G. Improves trust among citizens

1. My state measures user satisfaction of our digital services... Government Only

77% A. Absolutely

7% B. Why would we want to do that?

16% C. We have users?

1. What percentage of your annual budget for next year will be for new technology? Government Only

76% A. <30%

24% B. 31-60%

0% C. >60%

2. Do you own cowboy boots? All

48% A. Yes

52% B. No