

1. Are you going to do a “holler and a swaller” in Nashville? All

14% A. Yes

33% B. No

53% C. Say what?

2. How are you going about implementing a platform for Enterprise Architecture and shared services in the state?

9% A. We have no plans to implement a platform

78% B. Our plans are in the works

13% C. We're leaving it up to each agency to implement

1. How would you grade your state's digital strategy efforts? Government Only

23% A. Excellent

26% B. Good

35% C. Satisfactory

6% D. Unsatisfactory

5% E. Poor

5% F. Our what?

2. How would you grade your company's digital strategy efforts? Corporate Only

35% A. Excellent

32% B. Good

21% C. Satisfactory

6% D. Unsatisfactory

3% E. Poor

3% F. Our what?

1. In which of the following digital government areas is the CIO making the most progress? Government Only

10% A. Information-centric

33% B. Shared platform

28% C. Customer-centric

22% D. Security and privacy

7% E. Showing the 2015 NCAA Tournament Live Feed at Work

2. What factors are driving digital government efforts in your department/agency? Government Only

- 36% A. Show me the money... (cost efficiencies)
- 22% B. Harder, better, faster...(greater productivity for employees)
- 29% C. We the people...(citizen services)
- 3% D. Just following orders...(compliance with Open Data mandates/initiatives)
- 2% E. The Government invented the Internet (encourage innovation)
- 8% F. Can't we all just get along...(improve collaboration)

1. How are you budgeting for enterprise architecture?

Government Only

27% A. We are not budgeting

49% B. We are not creating an enterprise architecture department with its own budget

24% C. We are waiting

2. Why was the Ryman Auditorium originally built?

23% A. To serve as the home for the Grand Ole Opry

53% B. To serve as a permanent home for a tent revivalist preacher

24% C. To serve as a cultural center for theatre