Making your Message Memorable

Anthony Huey

It's not just what you say, it's how you say it. Whether you realize it or not, your communication skills are constantly being judged by others, often subconsciously. How you communicate in everything from casual conversations to formal presentations can be the difference between success and failure. This interactive, hands-on session teaches effective ways to communicate your message to a wide variety of audiences in a diverse array of situations. Even if you've heard Anthony before you will learn something new from this session!
